

John's Journey - Day 10

April 10, 2009

Marmaduke, AR to Paragould, AR

I broke camp and pulled out at about 7:30 AM. I drove to the Fairgrounds in Paragould, about 8 miles. I took care of the mules & put them in the stall.

I'll be taking off tomorrow and will be leaving here early Sunday morning heading towards Jonesboro, AR. My route for the next few days will be Highway 49 South to where it meets with Highway 79.

I met up with my good friend Christy who helped me a lot. We had quite a bit of trouble getting the pictures sent to Bev & Roger. After a bit we realized that the camera was set to the highest quality of picture which made the files too large. She found the setting and reduced the picture quality setting - that made the files smaller. Of course that only affects pictures from now on. At this rate I'll select the best of the pictures & send those on to Bev. I'm sure I'll still be sending them tomorrow. While we were doing all this, she got my clothes all washed up - I really appreciated that too.

I took my good friend Christy to the steak house. It was sure good! I got a chance to see Spencer, Olivia & Dawn for a little while too.

John's Journey - Day 11

April 11, 2009

I continued to send pictures to Bev & Roger - due to how large the files were it was really a slow process. Christie came by this afternoon & helped me finish sending the rest of the pictures - sure was a long day.

The mules are getting a bit bored. Jack started to paw in the stall. They too are ready to pull out in the morning.

On the day off, I noticed I had another brake line leak - so I fixed it again. I'll have to keep an eye on that. I also fixed the generator so I won't have to crawl under the wagon to charge the battery.

Jimmie Martin from McKenzie, TN & Ellen Lane from McEwen, TN rode the Honda Goldwing over here to see me today. That was really special.
