

John's Journey - Day 2

It's April 2, 2009 at 7:45 AM & we're off once more heading today toward Union City, TN. Debbie Kidwell stopped by from Lake Nowhere Mule & Donkey Farm located in Martin, TN.

She wished us well and a safe journey. The mules are doing great! I'm so proud of them. The battery died today and had to stop at Walmart to get a new one.

I met up with four other wagons this afternoon. Jimmie Thorton from Holiday, TN: Jackie Pennington, Doug Askew, & Gay Prince are all from Milan, TN. We all spent the night at the Obion County Fairgrounds in Union City, TN.

There's another wagon meeting us tomorrow morning for the trip to the Hickman-Dorena Ferry. Mike Pritchard and Russell Dawson from Troy, TN.

A real bad storm blew in tonight & it's raining hard. We're weathering it well, but next time I'm going to make certain that my wagon is much more level.
