

John's Journey - Day 20

April 20, 2009

Resting in Pine Bluff, AR

This morning when I got up to feed, I noticed a sore spot on Jack's neck. So I applied some medication on that area.

I went over to Huddle House hungry for some waffles - would you believe it, they were out of butter - so no waffles for me LOL.

Mules are sure enjoying the day off. They are both laying down soaking up the sunshine.

The farrier will be here about 4:00PM to shoe Jack & check on the condition of Mack's shoes.

Wes Clement came by from the Pine Bluff Commercial Paper to interview me.

Joe came by with the farrier, Jarred Johnson, and 200 pounds of sweet feed for the mules. After a bit Jack had four shoes on and Mack had to have the rear ones replaced. Neither one of them was happy, but they got shoes on any way.

Tomorrow morning we're heading out toward Rison, AR.
