

John's Journey - Day 31

May 1, 2009

DeKalb to Clarksville, TX

Marilyn & Sam showed up early this morning & they rode with me all the way to Clarksdale - they sure were good company. We had a great day together.

We passed a pasture full of paint horses. They sure were pretty!

Tonight I'm staying at Robin Bland's place in Clarksville. Robin Bland, Darrell Bland & David Barney Barnett are all teamsters who enjoy driving as much as I do. We talked for quite a while swapping stories & relaxing.

Everyone that I have met so far on my journey has been really great. I truly appreciate their generosity and kindness that they have shown me & my mules. Robin gave me four bales of hay. Dustin Perry brought me a plate of fish for dinner & Marilyn brought me some Banana Nut Bread.

I drove 29 miles today. Tomorrow I'm headed to Reno - may not make it quite that far.
