

John's Journey - Day 39

May 9, 2009

Sherman to Whitesboro, TX

May 9, 2009

Sherman to Whitesboro, TX

711

21 miles

It sure was a bad storm last night. I got wet again. I need to fix that problem. I sure will be glad to get out of this rain. I am so done with it. No matter how hard I try it's impossible to stay clean for any length of time.

Elaine came by early like she said & we pulled out at 7:45. We enjoyed the day together talking and taking in the scenery. She thinks what I am doing is so neat.

Quite a few people stopped me & talked today. I learned today that Whitesboro is also known as the Gateway to Horse Country. After we started moving again, I was really upset at myself, when the wind blew through my wagon & blew the cards away that I had put everyone's names. I need to be more careful about things like that in the future. Just know that I truly appreciate everything you all have done for me today. The people of Texas have been absolutely the best. Aside from that, it was a great day.

I'm staying tonight at the Sale Barn on the west side of Whitesboro off of 82.

I met Randy Brocklund today & he donated his time to put rear shoes on Jack. His business address is 20398 US 377 Whitesboro, TX 903-821-5304. A man came by this afternoon and gave me a big plate of barbeque. Someone else just gave me 50 pounds of feed for the mules.

We travelled 21 miles today and I'm going to try to make it to Munster tomorrow.