

John's Journey - Day 48

May 18, 2009

From 16 miles East of Seymour to 2 miles West of Seymour

I got up early and fed the mules and pulled out about 7:10.

The sun is shining and it is an absolutely beautiful day. It is so peaceful and quiet out here. They are building a new road so I drove on it today to avoid the traffic.

I passed by Harmel Ranch today, one of Texas' premier Hunting and Adventure sites located at 17682 US Highway 277E Seymour, Texas. (940-889-3359)

I got my flat tire fixed today in Seymour. I went by the police station and talked with them for a few minutes. While I was there I spoke with Myra Busby from the Seymour Chamber of Commerce.

Matt Gwynn spoke with me for a while today. He was with Banner Publishing.

Herman Dentler gave me 2 spare tires today. I'll get them mounted in the next town I go through. I really appreciated his generosity.

Tonight I'm staying at Seymour Veterinary Clinic. Dr. James N Tucker, DVM (940- 888-3806) He checked out Britt's paw but didn't find anything. She must have pulled it out herself.

The forecast for the next few days is sunny and clear. I am so glad. I think I've seen enough rain. Tomorrow I'm going to Vera, TX. I'll be staying at the Ranger Creek Ranch.

I drove about 18 miles today.
